

MANY LIVES MAY HAVE BEEN LOSTProbably Sixty Sailors Perish In Gale on Great Lakes.

PROPERTY DAMAGE IMMENSE

Wreckage of Boats Lies All Along the Shores of Lakes Superior, Huron and Erie and Bodies Are Being Washed Up at Several Points—Large Steel Vessel Points Bottom Up in Midlake.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—The shores of Lakes Superior, Huron and Erie are strewn with the wreckage of a three days' gale and snow storm which cost the lives of probably three score sailors, turned bottom up in midlake a 300-foot steel vessel with its crew; wrecked or grounded numerous other craft and caused a property loss which will run into the millions.

The full details of the storm, which literally swept from the westernmost end of Lake Superior to the eastern shore of Lake Erie, became known when survivors began arriving in ports with tales of hardship and heroic rescues seldom equaled on the lakes.

The storm hit hardest at Cleveland, O., where twenty-four inches of snow fell and where five persons were killed and ten others lost, and where $2,000,000 damage was caused to property, chiefly telephone and telegraph systems, thus keeping that city out of direct communication for two days.

The death toll with many ports unreported, is told thus:

Twenty-five or forty men probably drowned in the overturning of a freighter found floating in Lake Huron.

Five bodies washed ashore at St. Joseph, on the Canadian side of Lake Huron (four had belts marked "Wexford" and one wore a belt marked "London.")

Three bodies washed ashore on the west shore of Lake Huron.

Two bodies washed ashore opposite the position of the overturned boat.

Six members of the lightship drowned in Lake Erie near Buffalo, N. Y.

It was impossible to estimate the loss to vessels wrecked or damaged by grounding.

Shippers in Detroit estimated the loss in Lake Huron and the Detroit and St. Clair rivers alone to be several hundred thousand dollars.

Three of the wrecked steamers increase the loss by $500,000, while the scores of smaller craft driven ashore in Lake Superior and Lake Erie will send the total much higher.

SIX PERISH ON LIGHTSHIP

Shores of Lake Erie Are Strewn With Wreckage.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 12.—Fragments of wreckage tossed ashore along many miles of lake front confirmed the fear that the storm which lashed Lake Erie Sunday and Monday had claimed its toll of dead.

Six men perished when lightship No. 82 was torn from her anchorage fifteen miles up the lake and either foundered or was shattered on a breakwater during the blinding snow storm Monday.

At Lorain, O., the steamer J. C. Grammer, under command of Captain Burns of Buffalo, is hard ashore and in a dangerous position. Lifesavers are standing by, but are unable to take off the crew because of heavy seas.

THREE ARE TOTAL LOSSES

Half Dozen Boats Badly Battered on Lake Superior.

Calumet, Mich., Nov. 12.—With waves on Lake Superior subsiding following the four-day gale, the worst in years, which scattered the lake with wreckage of the strongest built steel ore and grain carriers, underwriters and owners are beginning to take stock of their losses.

So far as can be learned there were no lives lost on Lake Superior, but a round half dozen boats were badly battered and three are total losses.

DYNAMITE BOARDING HOUSE

Ten Mine Guards Whose Lives Are Sought Escape Injury.

Calumet, Mich., Nov. 12.—What is believed to have been an attempt to slaughter ten mine guards employed by the Centennial Mining company was made at Centennial Heights, in the copper mine strike zone, when a large boarding house was wrecked by a dynamite explosion.

Although the front of the house was blown in and doors and articles of furniture were hurled violently into rooms occupied by sleeping persons no one was hurt.

Every front room of the two-story building was wrecked. It is believed that at least three sticks of dynamite were exploded just outside a storm door.

Fatal Hunting Accidents.
Milwaukee, Nov. 12.—At least four persons have been killed in Wisconsin and one injured as the result of the opening of the deer season. The dead are: Harold Enderby, fourteen years old; Grover, Wis.; Daniel Hammer, Superior; Frank Brenner, Monrovia; Mrs. Frank Haskins, Bennett. The injured: Archie Villard, Radisson.

PREPARE REPORT
TO CONFERENCEAdministration Senators Favor House Currency Bill.

AMENDMENTS ARE TRIFLING

Messrs. Owen, Hollis, Pomerene and Shafroth Will Present to Democratic Caucus Their Version of What President Wilson Will Accept in the Way of Currency Legislation.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Declining to meet with the senate banking and currency committee pending action on the currency bill by a Democratic conference the four "administration" committee members continued preparation of their report to the conference. The other committeemen agreed to adjourn until Thursday.

The administration senators, Owen, Hollis, Pomerene and Shafroth, will present to the conference their version of what the president will accept in the way of currency legislation. They will report the administration bill as it passed the house, it is expected, with but a single important amendment.

The other changes will be alterations of phraseology calculated to correct errors and to make the meaning clear.

It is understood that the president is willing to yield one important change, for which there has been widespread demand, the elimination of the phrase "or lawful money," from the redemption section of the bill, making the proposed new currency redeemable only in gold.

Republican members of the committee decided to await action of the conference before taking any affirmative steps, but they are planning a report to the senate which will recommend a measure based on the Glass bill.

They will include, however, the amendments which the senate committee adopted, providing for not more than four regional banks to be publicly owned, but controlled by the government, as opposed to the administration plan for bank owned and government controlled regional banks.

GETS $12,000 FROM SAILORS

Americans Swindled by Former Band-
man on Battleship Utah.

Rome, Nov. 12.—The bluejackets of the American battleship Utah, Delaware, Vermont and Ohio discovered that they had been robbed of $12,000 which they entrusted to the care of a musician named Camerazzo, a former bandman on the Utah. He was to have used the money for the purpose of arranging an excursion to Rome and an audience with the pope.

Camerazzo was recommended to the sailors by Chaplain William H. I. Reaney of the Utah, who is now in Rome.

About 1,000 bluejackets, who wished to pay a visit to Rome, handed their money to Camerazzo with instructions to engage a special train for them.

This he promised to do, but when the men obtained shore leave and were ready to start they found that Camerazzo had absconded with the cash.

WILL RECEIVE EQUAL SHARE

Charles G. Gates Leaves Estate to Widow and Mother.

New York, Nov. 11.—The estate of Charles G. Gates will be divided between his widow, Mrs. Charles G. Gates, and his mother, Mrs. John W. Gates, who will get equal shares in the residuary estate, about $2,000,000 each, after bequests amounting to about $600,000 are paid to relatives and friends.

The principal provisions of the will were announced by A. L. Humes of personal counsel for Mrs. John W. Gates, who is named as executrix. The will was executed on Aug. 2, 1912.

NATIONAL GUARDSMAN DEAD

Ohioan Shot While Trying to Escape
Drill.

Toledo, O., Nov. 12.—Richard West, member of the Ohio national guard, died of blood poisoning as a result of a bullet wound in the arm inflicted by Lieutenant W. L. Miller, his superior officer, Sept. 29.

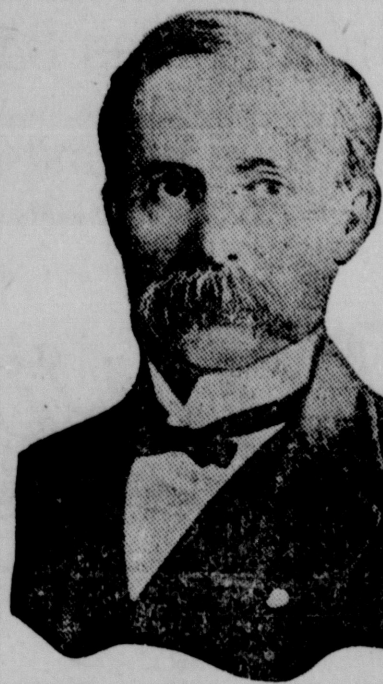

West had been playing football near the armory and Lieutenant Miller ordered him to drill. West refused and was arrested by military officers. On the way to the county jail he escaped and Lieutenant Miller fired, wounding him.

Colonel L. W. Howard, commanding the Sixth regiment, O. N. G., has appointed a military board to investigate.

Three Perish in Fire.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 12.—Trapped on the second floor of their home at Browning three members of the family of W. D. Laseter perished and three were injured, two fatally, in a fire that destroyed the home.

CAMINETTI ON TRIP WEST

Immigration Commissioner General
to Make an Inspection.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Commissioner General of Immigration Caminetti has left to make an extended inspection of the immigration service along the Pacific coast and Northern and Southern borders.

This is Mr. Caminetti's first inspection tour as head of the service. He will stop first at Chicago and from there he will go to San Francisco. He expects to be gone five or six weeks.

DRIFTS TWENTY FEET
DEEP AT CLEVELANDSnow Storm Causes Five Deaths
and Much Suffering.

Cleveland, Nov. 12.—With fair, warmer weather predicted Cleveland is hopeful of a speedy cessation of the difficulties that have beset it since the worst snow storm in its history descended Sunday night.

A resumption of the blizzard would be fatal, as it would cut off relief from the food scarcity which the city now faces. Rain would seriously complicate the situation, because flood conditions probably would ensue.

As a result of the disturbed condition of the lake a new menace developed.

The drinking water has turned to brown and warnings were issued by the health department to obviate a typhoid epidemic by boiling water.

The total number of dead was increased to five when John Richmond was crushed to death by the collapse of the roof of his house beneath the weight of snow and William Gombert was frozen in a snow drift.

The work of cleaning the city is progressing rapidly. Fifteen hundred men put fourteen city street car lines in order. Telegraph and telephone companies established a few connections with neighboring cities.

An average of twenty-four inches of snow fell during the storm and snow drifts have piled as high as twenty feet.

MONTANA MINERAL PRODUCTS

State Ranks Seventh in Total Value
of Its Output.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Montana ranks seventh among the states in the total value of its mineral products and second in the production of copper, for which Arizona stands first. The production of copper in both states, according to E. W. Parker of the United States geological survey, increased notably in 1912, in Montana from 272,847,705 pounds, valued at $34,105,963, in 1911, to 309,728,873 pounds, valued at $51,106,914 in 1912; and in Arizona from 306,141,538 pounds, valued at $38,267,692 in 1911, to 365,038,649 pounds, valued at $60,231,377 in 1912.

The total value of Montana's mineral production was $53,498,194 in 1911 and $71,620,873 in 1912, an increase of $18,122,679. The copper output approximates 70 per cent of the total.

STARES AT "COPPER"
GETS JAIL SENTENCE.

Breslau, Germany, Nov. 12.—Sentence of a fortnight in prison for staring at a policeman was imposed on a business man of this city.

In his defense the defendant said he believed the policeman was observing him too conspicuously.

The court said the defendant had "seriously insulted an official."

Tries to Stop Whippings.

Washington, Nov. 12.—Bareback whipping of six Delaware convicts at Newcastle, Nov. 8, brought a resolution from Congressman Evans of Montana proposing that Attorney General McReynolds bring injunction proceedings against the state of Delaware to enforce the constitutional prohibition against "cruel and inhuman punishment."

DIFFERENCES NOT SECTIONAL

Even Men in Wall Street Have Opposite Convictions as to Best Measure For the Country—Mrs. Wilson Doing Good Work in Cleaning Up the Mail Bag Repair Shop.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 12.—[Special.]—Such side issues as the Mexican crisis and the effort to find a solution for the trust problem will not prevent the president from going right ahead with currency legislation. The fact that he has struck several snags in trying to secure a currency reform bill has not deterred him. This is not going to be one of the first wrinkles in his administration if he can help it.

Curious Differences.
Just what causes men to differ over such questions as currency is rather difficult to explain. For instance Kansas and Oklahoma are adjoining states. Is it not natural to suppose that men from those states would be nearer in accord on a question like the currency than Kansas and Massachusetts? But it is a fact that Bristow and Weeks are nearer than Bristow and Owen on this money subject. Then Missouri, Nebraska and New York, as represented by Reed, Hitchcock and O'Gorman, seem to be in accord. Those western men are not in harmony. The currency question is not sectional.

Still More Interesting.
Wall street is divided. There are two different elements in the money centers. Big financial men disagree about the currency bill. If one were looking for harmony in the consideration of a national currency measure he would expect to find it in Wall street. The impression has been that all the money interests in New York city were combined against the rest of the country. But the differences in Wall street begin to show a line of demarcation in the senate. Soon charges which have been made privately will come out publicly, and we shall see the full force of this currency question.

Mail Bag Repair Shop.
A quarter of a century ago—and I do not know how much longer—the mail bag repair shop of the United States government was a subject of earnest discussion. Our great government, spending billions, maintained a shop for the repair of mail bags which was then a disgrace. These bags travel for thousands of miles on the floors of dirty mail cars; they are thrown on dirty railway platforms; they are carted in all kinds of trucks, tramped on by all kinds of feet, covered with all kinds of dirt and grime; when ripped and worn they return to Washington for repair. There poor, half paid women labor over these bags, because they must earn a living for themselves and those dependent upon them.

Mrs. Wilson, wife of the president, has been looking into this subject, and it is to be hoped that she will be successful in ridding the country of this blot of many years.

Leadership and Bossism.
John Sharp Williams believes in leadership. He was a leader himself once and would like to be a leader again if his fellow Democrats of the senate would permit. Here is what he said one day in the senate:

"We have not suffered from leadership. We have suffered from bossism." But what is bossism? It is irresponsible, unofficial, unselected, untested leadership. It is subterranean leadership. It is private leadership. It is the invisible empire. It is leadership through instrumentalities not known to the constitution or laws."

Denial Never Catches Up.
"Now, don't you go putting something in the papers without letting me see it if you are going to quote me," said Champ Clark to an interviewer.

"But you can deny it or say you were misquoted or that you were not talking for publication," was the reply.

"No; that doesn't go," replied the speaker. "A denial never catches up."

Mann and the New Member.
Jerry Donovan of Connecticut complained that Jim Mann took advantage of a new member and attacked him. He went on to say that Mann had been "talking through his hat."

"The gentleman from Connecticut," said Mann, "does what a new member frequently does—takes a crack at me—and when I smile back says I have assaulted a new member. I have never attacked a new member in the house until he attacked me."

There is something in that too. A new member anxious to get a reputation oftentimes decides to "take a crack" at Jim Mann, and that "smile back" which Mann mentioned oftentimes means a skinning which that new member will remember for many a day.

Martine Gets Attention.
Few senators talk less than Martine of New Jersey, though he gets in frequently. He gets more attention than almost any other man, for his vigorous manner and his intemperance attract the attention of senators and on-lookers.

Knowing and Forgetting.
There are many things which we can afford to forget which it is yet well to learn—Holmes.

PRESIDENT STARTS INQUIRY

Letters Relating to Ambassadorship
May Be Forgeries.

Washington, Nov. 12.—President Wilson personally inquired into the details of the tangle over the publication of letters purporting to have been written by Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois, offering Henry M. Pinckell of Peoria, Ill., the ambassadorship to Russia for one year without diplomatic responsibilities.

Mr. Pinckell, who has been reported upon as acceptable to the Russian government, arrived in Washington and with Secretary Bryan and Samuel M. Graham, assistant attorney general, laid the details of the subject before the president.

Mr. Pinckell furnished copies of all correspondence that had passed between himself and Senator Lewis and the newspapers containing alleged intimations have come from Mr. Pinckell that the letters as published were not genuine.

CHARGE OF PERJURY
FRIGHTENS WITNESSSyracuse Man Admits Sending Political Telegram.

New York, Nov. 12.—George H. McGuire of Syracuse, who denied under oath last Thursday that he had sent a telegram to John A. Hennessy, former Governor Sulzer's graft investigator, relative to political contributions, admitted he was the author of the telegram.

A threat of indictment for perjury was hanging over him when the admission fell from his lips and he left the witness stand almost in a state of collapse. A physician was called to attend him.

McGuire was testifying for the second time in the John Doe inquiry instituted by District Attorney Whitman into Hennessy's charges that contractors on state work had been "sandbagged" into making campaign contributions to Tammany Hall.

Hennessy had testified that he obtained most of his information from McGuire.

He said McGuire had sent him a telegram from Syracuse signed "M." setting forth that William H. Kelley, Democratic leader of Onondaga county, had been helping Arthur A. McLean, treasurer of the Democratic state committee, to "shake down" state highway contractors.

McGuire on Thursday unequivocally denied that he had anything to do with the telegram.

Supports President in His Policy Toward Huerta.

SECRETARIES ALL RETICENT

Opinion is Unanimous That Retirement of President Huerta is a Necessary Step to Secure Pacification of Revolt Ridden Republic—United States Will Take No Backward Step in Its Announced Program.

Washington, Nov. 12.—President Wilson's cabinet stands firmly behind him in his efforts to force the retirement of Provisional President Huerta as a necessary step to the pacification of Mexico.

For more than two hours the cabinet discussed the Mexican situation and the consensus of opinion was that the United States government should not take a single backward step in its announced program looking to the restoration of constitutional government in the neighboring republic.

Though the secretaries were reticent afterward about expressing their views it became known that they all favored steps which would convince Huerta that the United States was earnest in its demands that he eliminate himself from the situation.

There is a hope on the part of both the president and Secretary Bryan that a measure so radical as permitting exportation of arms may not be required to solve the problem.

Influences are at work which many officials believe may force the early collapse of the Huerta regime.

There is a closer understanding, for instance, and more frequent communication between the state department here and foreign governments generally than has been in evidence at any time since the Mexican problem became so widely international.

So far as is known there have been no direct requests for foreign support.

A few weeks of financial isolation, it is believed by high officials here, will force the retirement of Huerta.

INDICTED ON BIGAMY CHARGE

Son-in-Law of Former Congressman
Nye in Trouble.

Minneapolis, Nov. 12.—Arthur B. Carter, son-in-law of former Congressman Frank M. Nye of Minneapolis, was indicted by the Hennepin county grand jury on a charge of bigamy. The complaint was sworn to by Selma M. Bondeson, who alleges that Carter married her Feb. 10, 1913, when he had another wife.

Carter married Belle Nye on March 18, 1897, according to the records, and the couple have three children, the oldest fourteen years. When the first Mrs. Carter went away to visit Carter went to the Bondeson home to board. He became enamored of the Bondeson girl, it is declared, and, according to the complaint, finally married her. Both wives are said to have lived only a few blocks apart.

the proposed new currency redeemable only in gold.Republican members of the committee decided to await action of the conference before taking any affirmative steps, but they are planning a report to the senate which will recommend a measure based on the Glass bill.They will include, however, the amendments which the senate committee adopted, providing for not more than four regional banks to be publicly owned, but controlled by the government, as opposed to the administration plan for bank owned and government controlled regional banks.

GETS $12,000 FROM SAILORS

Americans Swindled by Former Band-man on Battleship Utah.Rome, Nov. 12.—The bluejackets of the American battleships Utah, Delaware, Vermont and Ohio discovered that they had been robbed of $12,000 which they entrusted to the care of a musician named Camerazzo, a former bandman on the Utah. He was to have used the money for the purpose of arranging an excursion to Rome and an audience with the pope.Camerazzo was recommended to the sailors by Chaplain William H. I.
Reaney of the Utah, who is now in Rome.About 1,000 bluejackets, who wished to pay a visit to Rome, handed their money to Camerazzo with instructions to engage a special train for them.This he promised to do, but when the men obtained shore leave and were ready to start they found that Camerazzo had absconded with the cash.

personal counsel for Mrs. John W.
Gates, who is named as executrix. The

NATIONAL GUARDSMAN DEAD

Ohioan Shot While Trying to Escape
Drill.Toledo, O., Nov. 12.—Richard West,
member of the Ohio national guard,
died of blood poisoning as a result of a bullet wound in the arm inflicted by Lieutenant W. L. Miller, his superior officer, Sept. 29.West had been playing football near the armory and Lieutenant Miller ordered him to drill. West refused and was arrested by military officers. On the way to the county jail he escaped and Lieutenant Miller fired, wounding him.Colonel L. W. Howard, commanding the Sixth regiment, O. N. G., has appointed a military board to investigate.

CAMINETTI ON TRIP WEST

Immigration Commissioner General
to Make an Inspection.Washington, Nov. 12.—Commissioner General of Immigration Caminetti has left to make an extended inspection of the immigration service along the Pacific coast and Northern and Southern borders.This is Mr. Caminetti's first inspection tour as head of the service. He will stop first at Chicago and from there he will go to San Francisco. He expects to be gone five or six weeks.DRIFTS TWENTY FEET DEEP AT CLEVELANDSnow Storm Causes Five Deaths
and Much Suffering.Cleveland, Nov. 12.—With fair, warmer weather predicted Cleveland is hopeful of a speedy cessation of the difficulties that have beset it since the worst snow storm in its history descended Sunday night.A resumption of the blizzard would be fatal, as it would cut off relief from the food scarcity which the city now faces. Rain would seriously complicate the situation, because flood conditions probably would ensue.As a result of the disturbed condition of the lake a new menace developed.The drinking water has turned to brown and warnings were issued by the health department to obviate a typhoid epidemic by boiling water.The total number of dead was increased to five when John Richmond was crushed to death by the collapse of the roof of his house beneath the weight of snow and William Gombert was frozen in a snow drift.The work of cleaning the city is progressing rapidly. Fifteen hundred men put fourteen city street car lines in order. Telegraph and telephone companies established a few connections with neighboring cities.An average of twenty-four inches of snow fell during the storm and snow drifts have piled as high as twenty feet.

MONTANA MINERAL PRODUCTS

State Ranks Seventh in Total Value
of Its Output.Washington, Nov. 12.—Montana ranks seventh among the states in the total value of its mineral products and second in the production of copper, for which Arizona stands first.
The production of copper in both states, according to E. W. Parker of the United States geological survey, increased notably in 1912, in Montana from 272,847,705 pounds, valued at $34,105,963, in 1911, to 309,728,873
pounds, valued at $51,106,914 in 1912;
and in Arizona from 306,141,538
pounds, valued at $38,267,692 in 1911,
to 365,038,649 pounds, valued at $60-231,377 in 1912.The total value of Montana's mineral production was $53,498,194 in 1911 and $71,620,873 in 1912, an increase of $18,122,679. The copper output approximates 70 per cent of the total.

STARES AT "COPPER"

Breslau, Germany, Nov. 12.—

man was imposed on a business man of this city.In his defense the defendant

DIFFERENCES NOT SECTIONAL

Even Men in Wall Street Have Opposite Convictions as to Best Measure
For the Country—Mrs. Wilson Doing
Good Work in Cleaning Up the Mail
Bag Repair Shop.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 12.—[Special.]—
Such side issues as the Mexican crisis and the effort to find a solution for the trust problem will not prevent the president from going right ahead with currency legislation. The fact that he has struck several snags in trying to secure a currency reform bill has not deterred him. This is not going to be one of the first wrecks in his administration if he can help it.

Curious Differences.

Just what causes men to differ over such questions as currency is rather difficult to explain. For instance Kansas and Oklahoma are adjoining states.
Is it not natural to suppose that men from those states would be nearer in accord on a question like the currency than Kansas and Massachusetts? But it is a fact that Bristow and Weeks are nearer than Bristow and Owen on this money subject. Then Missouri, Nebraska and New York, as represented by Reed, Hitchcock and O'Gorman, seem to be in accord. Those western men are not in harmony. The currency question is not sectional.

Still More Interesting.

Wall street is divided. There are two different elements in the money centers. Big financial men disagree about the currency bill. If one were looking for harmony in the consideration of a national currency measure he would expect to find it in Wall street. The impression has been that all the money interests in New York city were combined against the rest of the country.
But the differences in Wall street begin to show a line of demarcation in the senate. Soon charges which have been made privately will come out publicly, and we shall see the fur fly over this currency question.

Mail Bag Repair Shop.

A quarter of a century ago—and I do not know how much longer—the mail bag repair shop of the United States government was a subject of earnest discussion. Our great government, spending billions, maintained a shop for the repair of mail bags which was then a disgrace. These bags travel for thousands of miles on the floor of dirty mail cars; they are thrown on dirty railway platforms; they are carried in all kinds of trucks, tramped on by all kinds of feet, covered with all kinds of death producing germs; when ripped and worn they return to Washington for repair. There poor, half paid women labor over these bags, because they must earn a living for themselves and those dependent upon them.Mrs. Wilson, wife of the president, has been looking into this subject, and it is to be hoped that she will be successful in ridding the country of this blot of many years.

Leadership and Bossism.

John Sharp Williams believes in leadership. He was a leader himself once and would like to be a leader again if his fellow Democrats of the senate would permit. Here is what he said one day in the senate:"We have not suffered from leadership. We have suffered from 'bossism.' But what is 'bossism'? It is irresponsible, unofficial, unelected, un-selected leadership. It is subterranean leadership. It is private leadership.
It is the invisible empire. It is leadership through instrumentalities not known to the constitution or laws."

Denial Never Catches Up.

"Now, don't you go putting something in the papers without letting me see it if you are going to quote me," said Champ Clark to an interviewer."But you can deny it or say you were misquoted or that you were not talking for publication," was the reply."No; that doesn't go," replied the speaker. "A denial never catches up."

Mann and the New Member.

Jerry Donovan of Connecticut complained that Jim Mann took advantage of a new member and attacked him.
He went on to say that Mann had been "talking through his hat.""The gentleman from Connecticut," said Mann, "does what a new member frequently does—takes a crack at me—and when I smile back says I have assaulted a new member. I have never attacked a new member in the house until he attacked me."There is something in that too. A new member anxious to get a reputation oftentimes decides to "take a fall out of Jim Mann," and that "smile back" which Mann mentioned oftentimes means a skinning which that new member will remember for many a day.

Martine Gets Attention.

Few senators talk less than Martine
of New Jersey, though he gets in frequently. He gets more attention than almost any other man, for his vigorous manner and his intemperate attract the attention of senators and onlookers.

Political Telegram.New York, Nov. 12.—George H.
McGuire of Syracuse, who denied under oath last Thursday that he had sent a telegram to John A. Hennessy, former Governor Sulzer's graft investigator, relative to political contributions, admitted he was the author of the telegram.A threat of indictment for perjury was hanging over him when the admission fell from his lips and he left the witness stand almost in a state of collapse. A physician was called to attend him.McGuire was testifying for the second time in the John Doe inquiry instituted by District Attorney Whitman into Hennessy's charges that contractors on state work had been
"sandbagged" into making campaign contributions to Tammany Hall.Hennessy had testified that he obtained most of his information from McGuire.He said McGuire had sent him a telegram from Syracuse signed "M."
settling forth that William H. Kelley, Democratic leader of Onondaga county, had been helping Arthur A. Mc-Lean, treasurer of the Democratic state committee, to "shake down"
state highway contractors.McGuire on Thursday unequivocally denied that he had anything to do with the telegram.

IT'S A BIG
BARGAIN

EVERYTHING WAS CHEAP.

Just Imagine Buying a Whole Sheep For 10 Cents.

A countryman living just beyond the outskirts of London drove to the metropolis one day to order a few provisions, etc.

(By the way, this account is perfectly true. It is not a problem or a joke. The prices stated can be verified.)

The countryman first went to the nearest cobbler's. There he bought a good pair of shoes. Not shoddy footwear, carefully turned out or even machine made, but hand sewed and of fine, strong leather. For this pair of shoes he paid just 7 cents.

Next he drove to a butcher stall in Smithfield. There he bought a sheep, a dozen chickens and ten pounds of beef. For the sheep he paid 10 cents. For the chickens he paid 1½ cents apiece, or 18 cents for the dozen. The ten pounds of beef cost him a nickel. For beef was half a cent a pound.

Stowing away his purchases in his big wagon, the farmer next stopped at a fish stall, where for 10 cents he bought twenty-five big codfish.

His visit to the grain merchant cost him more. For he was forced to pay 15 cents for a bushel of rye—a sum out of all proportion to his earlier purchases. It was cheaper, you see, to buy meat than the rye bread to eat it with.

But his ensuing trip to the draper's for enough homespun cloth to provide him with a winter suit atoned for the high price of the grain. For he found that the stout homespun cloth was selling at 12 cents an ell, or 93½ cents a yard.

The farmer had no trouble in carrying his wares home in his wagon. For the wagon was large. He had driven it to London full of firewood, and this wagon load of wood he had sold for 12 cents.

The foregoing prices are all accurate. The high cost of living had not yet hit England. For, you see, all this happened several years ago.

In fact, it was at the beginning of the sixteenth century.—New York World.

For Children There is Nothing Better

A cough medicine for children must help their cough and colds without bad effects on their little stomachs and bowels. Foley's Honey and Tar exactly fills this need. No opiates, no sour stomach, no constipation follows its use. Stuffy colds, wheezy breathing, coughs and croup are all quickly helped. H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Adv. mwf Queer Bridge Foundation.

At the little town of Wadebridge, Cornwall, England, there is a bridge of a unique character. Owing to the strength of the current ordinary stone foundations would not hold, and numerous devices were tried without success. Eventually bags of wool were sunk in the stream and the piles driven in, and this strange foundation has proved wonderfully firm and satisfactory.

Belated Discovery.

"My dear," said Mr. Bickers to his wife, "I saw in the papers today a decision of a court that the wife may in some cases be the head of the family." "John Henry," replied Mrs. Bickers, "the courts are sometimes very slow in finding out things."—Puck.

Had a Good Excuse.

"They were next door neighbors for years, and yet they never spoke." "That's the way with people in cities."

"There was some excuse in this case. The prison rules forbade talking."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Ending the Argument.

"Briggs called me a liar." "Didn't you deny it?" "Yes, and he said that proved that I was."—Boston Transcript.

More Bottles Sold Each Year

It is easy to understand why an increasing number of bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is sold yearly. Thos. Verran, 186 Edward street, Houghton, Mich., gives an excellent reason when he writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has always proven an effective remedy, quickly relieving tickling in the throat, and stopping the cough with no bad after effects. What's the Answer?

What gives us our sense of loathing for the garden toad, demurely useful little neighbor that he has proved himself, while his second cousin, the frog, who seems to do nothing but play the dandy and the braggart, is uniformly treated as a good fellow? If the toad gulped and croaked all night long and made his home in slimy pools instead of in the melon patch, would they reverse their present order in our esteem?—Atlantic.

HELP WANTED IN BRAINERD

And Furnished by the Help of Brainerd People

Those who suffer with kidney backache, urinary ills or any little kidney or bladder disorder, want kidney help. Who can better advise than some Brainerd resident, who has also suffered, but has had relief. Brainerd people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's one case and there are many others.

Peter Abear, Main St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "Last winter I was in bad shape with kidney and bladder complaint. It hurt me to bend over. The pains in my sides and hips were hard to endure, and when I caught cold the trouble was worse. Soon after using Doan's Kidney Pills I got relief. Since then I have procured Doan's Kidney Pills at H. P. Dunn's Drug Store, and have taken them off and on for a few days. They have always helped me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Abear had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Birmingham, Ala. F. L. Willis, suffered greatly from asthma and bronchitis. He writes: "I got no relief until I took Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It entirely removed those choking sensations, and never failed to produce an easy and comfortable condition of the throat and lungs." H. P. Dunn, druggist.—Advt. mwf

BARGAIN

EVERYTHING WAS CHEAP.

Just Imagine Buying a Whole Sheep For 10 Cents.

A countryman living just beyond the outskirts of London drove to the metropolis one day to order a few provisions, etc.

(By the way, this account is perfectly true. It is not a problem or a joke. The prices stated can be verified.)

The countryman first went to the nearest cobbler's. There he bought a good pair of shoes. Not shoddy footwear, carefully turned out or even machine made, but hand sewed and of fine, strong leather. For this pair of shoes he paid just 7 cents.

Next he drove to a butcher stall in Smithfield. There he bought a sheep, a dozen chickens and ten pounds of beef. For the sheep he paid 10 cents. For the chickens he paid 1½ cents apiece, or 18 cents for the dozen. The ten pounds of beef cost him a nickel. For beef was half a cent a pound.

Stowing away his purchases in his big wagon, the farmer next stopped at a fish stall, where for 10 cents he bought twenty-five big codfish.

His visit to the grain merchant cost him more. For he was forced to pay 15 cents for a bushel of rye—a sum out of all proportion to his earlier purchases. It was cheaper, you see, to buy meat than the rye bread to eat it with.

But his ensuing trip to the draper's for enough homespun cloth to provide him with a winter suit atoned for the high price of the grain. For he found that the stout homespun cloth was selling at 12 cents an ell, or 93-5 cents a yard.

The farmer had no trouble in carrying his wares home in his wagon. For the wagon was large. He had driven it to London full of firewood, and this wagon load of wood he had sold for 12 cents.

The foregoing prices are all accurate. The high cost of living had not yet hit England. For, you see, all this happened several years ago.

In fact, it was at the beginning of the sixteenth century.—New York World.

BRAINERD TRIMS BEMIDJI

Bemidji High School Eleven Goes Down to an 18 to 7 Defeat Last Saturday

Poor generalship was the principal reason why the Bemidji high school football eleven was defeated by the Brainerd team at that late Saturday afternoon. Brainerd was able to push the pigskin across the Bemidji goal line three times during the contest, while the local boys were capable of scoring only once, this being when Hayner broke away for a thirty yard run. Riley, playing quarter for Bemidji, is accused by his teammates of using poor headwork on several occasions. Only three times during the contest was Hayner the fastest man on the Bemidji squad and the eleven's most constant ground gainer given an opportunity to show his skill and each time responded with a gain of from ten to thirty yards. The game marked the close of the most unsuccessful football season ever participated in by a Bemidji team. The team has met defeat in three or four contests. Elletson starred for Bemidji.—Bemidji Daily Pioneer.

George Adcock's Northeast Brainerd Sawmill was a Great Benefit to Brainerd

MILL SAWED 1,500,000 FEET

Made Two Million Shingles, Employed 22 Men and Ran About Five Months this Season

George Adcock's Northeast Brainerd sawmill paid out in wages this season over $10,000. The mill is situated on the end of Mill street near the Brainerd dam.

The mill ran about five months and in that time employed about 22 men. About 1,500,000 feet of lumber were sawed and 2,000,000 shingles manufactured.

The deadhead stock picked out of the Mississippi river between Brainerd and Rabbit Lake two years ago was sawed up. Early in the season it was first planned to send the logs to Little Falls and have them sawed up there, but L. M. Dupue of the Brainerd State bank and Mr. Adcock got busy and the cutting was done in Brainerd and as a result $10,000 in wages stayed in this town and Mr. Adcock is in position to continue his mill and become a permanent industry of "The City of Mines."

The Adcock mill deals in logs, lath bolts and millwood. There is a great call for the millwood and its teams are kept busy hauling it all over town. Next season lath will be made in large quantities. Under Mr. Adcock's management the mill has had a successful run and the patronage he has received insures the mill becoming a permanent institution and as such contributing much to the welfare of Brainerd in general and Northeast Brainerd in particular.

A Queer Practice.

A queer practice which is general throughout all the tribes of Australia is the ribbing of the skin. When the children are still young long cuts are made across the chest, down the upper arm and leg and even across the back and ribs. While the wound is quite fresh the cut is opened and a mixture of mud is grafted in the skin being pulled as far as possible over it. The skin eventually grows completely around the mud filling and forms ridges varying in length and size from an ordinary lead pencil to the thickness of a man's little finger and extending from armpit to armpit.—London Standard.

DID YOU WAKE UP CROSS OR FEVERISH

Look Mother! If Tongue is Coated, Give "California Syrup of Figs" to Clean the Bowels

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside cleansing." Inspect for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Fig Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Counterfeits are being sold here. Don't be fooled!

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"The Typhoon" Tonight

Walker Whiteside, one of the best known stars before the public today, will be seen at the Brainerd opera house tonight, at which time he will present his latest and greatest play, "The Typhoon."

An outline of "The Typhoon," and a few words about the author, should prove of interest. It was written by a young Hungarian named Menyhert Legezev, and received its first presentation in Budapest. It created a remarkable sensation and was translated immediately into no less than five different languages and at one time was played simultaneously in Vienna, Berlin, Paris, London and in America. The story concerns Tokeramo, principally, for he is the central figure of the drama and dominates the entire theme. This young Japanese is a special emissary of the Mikado, having been sent to Berlin upon a secret mission of supreme importance.

His work seems likely to meet with failure, however, for the reason that he has permitted himself to become involved in an affair of the heart with Illona, a beautiful designing woman of the Berlin underworld. Tokeramo's co-workers recognize his extreme danger and implore him to withdraw from the liaison, gracefully if possible, brutally if need be. At the crucial moment however, Tokeramo discovers that his love for Illona transcends his duty to Japan, and he implores her to remain with him. Illona is a creature of complex emotions, and having attained that which she most desires—Tokeramo's love—she suffers a revulsion of feeling, and in turn throws him over. In a sensational scene the beautiful demimondaine derides him for his weakness, scoffs at his yellow skin and calls his beloved Japan a blot upon the world. This tirade of abuse arouses Tokeramo's rage to an ungovernable degree, and he strangles her in a fit of passion, which has never been equalled on the stage for barbaric violence.

It is this scene of cyclonic rage which gives the play its name—"The Typhoon," which like those Asiatic hurricanes sweep the country leaving death and destruction behind them. Scenically, "The Typhoon" is most interesting. The single setting depicts the lavish interior of Tokeramo's apartments in Berlin. The furniture, works of art, hangings, rugs and bric-a-brac are all of genuine Japanese make and were secured direct from the importers in New York. Nothing more exquisite in light effects has ever been shown in a modern drama.

FOOD TABOOS IN ALASKA.

Queer Dietary Rules That Are Part of the Eskimo Religion.
To illustrate one of the phases of the native religion of the Eskimos, we may consider the question of food taboos. In the mountains of Alaska, on the upper Kuvuk and Nostak rivers, and on the headwaters of the Colville, the prohibitions which applied to the eating of the flesh of the mountain sheep alone were as extensive as the entire dietary section of the Moslem law.

A young girl, for instance, might eat only certain ribs, and when she was a little older she might eat certain other ribs, but when she was full grown she would for a time have to abstain from eating the ribs which had been allowed to her up to then.

After a woman had had her first child she might eat certain other ribs, and after her second child still others, and only after having had five children might she eat all the ribs; but even then she must not eat the membranes on the inside of the ribs. If her child was sick she must not eat certain ribs, and if two of her children were sick she might not eat certain other ribs. If her brother's child was sick she might not eat certain parts, and if her brother's wife died there were still different prohibitions.

The taboos applying to the ribs of sheep had relation to the health of her children and of her relatives. They also depended upon what animals her relatives or herself had killed recently and on whether those animals were male or female.—V. Steffensen in Harper's Magazine.

WANT FLYER TO STOP AT PILLAGER

Pillager Herald, in Article, Voices General Demand for Evening Train to Stop there

MANY WISH TO VISIT BRAINERD

Would Make an Admirable Theater Train and Also Let Many Attend Lodge Sessions

The Pillager Herald, in this week's issue of the paper, will voice a general demand for the flyer of the Northern Pacific railway to stop at Pillager. This train at present makes but five stops between Duluth and Staples, being Superior, Carlton, Aitkin, Deerwood and Brainerd. If the train stopped at Pillager in the evening it would serve as an admirable theater train, enabling Pillager and a large territory to arrive in Brainerd in ample time for the performance. Returning home, these people can take the midnight train.

The article in the Pillager Herald states the matter so clearly that it is herewith reprinted:

"The past summer and fall the Northern Pacific has and is now running a passenger train known as the 'Twin Ports Limited' from Duluth to Staples. This train passes through Pillager, going west at 2:15 P. M. and going east at 7:30 P. M., arriving in Brainerd at a few minutes to eight, but does not stop at Pillager going either way.

"A large number of Pillager citizens belong to fraternal societies as the Masons, Elks, Eagles, etc., at Brainerd, who always hold their sessions in the evening.

"Shows at the Brainerd opera house generally begin at 8:15, and there are usually always a number from Pillager who would like to attend. Brainerd is glad to have Pillager people come there and buy, attend their shows, and their societies.

"We believe that these different parties should interest themselves, take the matter before the Commercial club, and they in turn put the proposition before the right officials to get the evening train to stop at Pillager, if only on signal. A large number of Pillager citizens have given this matter their thought.

"Stopping the train once in a while will not harm the schedule to any great extent, but will be a great accommodation to Pillager people, as well as to the drummers.

"The Pillager Herald and citizens will gladly do their part, but believe more help will be given to the proposition if the Commercial club and other organizations will take the matter direct to the proper officials, which it is hoped they will do soon."

The Dispatch is glad to hear of the interest of Pillager people in the matter and it is hoped the Commercial club, the Boosters club, the U. C. T. council, the Brainerd opera house and other organizations of this city will join the Pillager people in their request. Northern Pacific railway officials are always very courteous and obliging and if it can be shown that the business obtained will not exceed the cost of stopping on signal and that the schedule will not be materially disarranged, the company may make the concession.

Another plan might be to wire Duluth, for instance, that ten passengers wished to attend the show at Brainerd on a certain date and to have the train stop on signal. The company might then be induced to stop on such dates when a certain amount of business warranted it.

A copy of this article has been sent Division Superintendent A. V. Brown at Duluth for his opinion in the matter.

Tokerao's co-workers recognize his extreme danger and implore him to withdraw from the mission, gracefully if possible, but if need be. At the crucial moment however, Tokerao discovers that his love for Ilona transcends his duty to Japan, and he implores her to remain with him. Ilona is a creature of complex emotions, and having attained that which she most desires—Tokerao's love—she suffers a revulsion of feeling, and in turn throws him over. In a sensational scene the beautiful demimondaine derides him for his weakness, scoffs at his yellow skin and calls his beloved Japan a blot upon the world. This tirade of abuse arouses Tokerao's rage to an ungovernable degree, and he strangles her in a fit of passion, which has never been equalled on the stage for barbaric violence.

It is this scene of cyclonic rage which gives the play its name—"The Typhoon," which like those Asiatic hurricanes sweep the country leaving death and destruction behind them. Scenically, "The Typhoon" is most interesting. The single setting depicts the lavish interior of Tokerao's apartments in Berlin. The furniture, works of art, hangings, rugs and bric-a-brac are all of genuine Japanese make and were secured direct from the importers in New York. Nothing more exquisite in light effects has ever been shown in a modern drama.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. FOOD TABOOS IN ALASKA.

Queer Dietary Rules That Are Part of the Eskimo Religion.

To illustrate one of the phases of the native religion of the Eskimos, we may consider the question of food taboos. In the mountains of Alaska, on the upper Kuvuk and Noatak rivers, and on the headwaters of the Colville, the prohibitions which applied to the eating of the flesh of the mountain sheep were as extensive as the entire dietary section of the Mosalaw law.

A young girl, for instance, might eat only certain ribs, and when she was a little older she might eat certain other ribs, but when she was full grown she would for a time have to abstain from eating the ribs which had been allowed to her up to then.

After a woman had had her first child she might eat certain other ribs, after her second child still others, and only after having had five children might she eat all the ribs; but even then she must not eat the membranes on the inside of the ribs. If her child was sick she must not eat certain ribs, and if two of her children were sick she might not eat certain other ribs. If her brother's child was sick she might not eat certain parts, and if her brother's wife died there were still different prohibitions.

The taboos applying to the ribs of sheep had relation to the health of her children and of her relatives. They also depended upon what animals her relatives or herself had killed recently and on whether those animals were male or female.—V. Stefansson in Harper's Magazine.

WANT FLYER TO STOP AT PILLAGER

Pillager Herald, in Article, Voices General Demand for Evening Train to Stop there

MANY WISH TO VISIT BRAINERD

Would Make an Admirable Theater Train and Also Let Many Attend Lodge Sessions

The Pillager Herald, in this week's issue of the paper, will voice a general demand for the flyer of the Northern Pacific railway to stop at Pillager. This train at present makes but five stops between Duluth and Staples, being Superior, Carlton, Aitkin, Deerwood and Brainerd. If the train stopped at Pillager in the evening it would serve as an admirable theater train, enabling Pillager and a large territory to arrive in Brainerd in ample time for the performance. Returning home, these people can take the midnight train.

The article in the Pillager Herald states the matter so clearly that it is herewith reprinted:

"The past summer and fall the Northern Pacific has and is now running a passenger train known as the 'Twin Ports Limited' from Duluth to Staples. This train passes through Pillager, going west at 2:15 P. M. and going east at 7:30 P. M., arriving in Brainerd at a few minutes to eight, but does not stop at Pillager going either way.

A large number of Pillager citizens belong to fraternal societies as the Masons, Elks, Eagles, etc., at Brainerd, who always hold their sessions in the evening.

"Shows at the Brainerd opera house generally begin at 8:15, and there are usually always a number from Pillager who would like to attend. Brainerd is glad to have Pillager people come there and buy, attend their shows, and their societies.

"We believe that these different parties should interest themselves, take the matter before the Commercial club, and they in turn put the proposition before the right officials to get the evening train to stop at Pillager, if only on signal. A large number of Pillager citizens have given this matter their thought.

"Stopping the train once in a while will not harm the schedule to any great extent, but will be a great accommodation to Pillager people, as well as to the drummers.

"The Pillager Herald and citizens will gladly do their part, but believe more help will be given to the proposition if the Commercial club and other organizations will take the matter direct to the proper officials, which it is hoped they will do soon."

The Dispatch is glad to hear of the interest of Pillager people in the matter and it is hoped the Commercial club, the Boosters club, the U. C. T. council, the Brainerd opera house and other organizations of this city will join the Pillager people in their request. Northern Pacific railway officials are always very courteous and obliging and if it can be shown that the business obtained will not exceed the cost of stopping on signal and that the schedule will not be materially disarranged, the company may make the concession.

Another plan might be to wire Duluth, for instance, that ten passengers wished to attend the show at Brainerd on a certain date and to have the train stop on signal. The company might then be induced to stop on such dates when a certain amount of business warranted it.

A copy of this article has been sent Division Superintendent A. V. Brown at Duluth for his opinion in the matter.

ONE WAY TO VISIT

The Tarahumare of Mexico Has a Style All His Own.

NEVER STARTLES HIS HOST.

He is Too Politely Deliberate For That and the Compliment is Faithfully Returned—Ceremonies in the House Have a Rather Abrupt Ending.

For a barbarian the Tarahumare is a very polite personage. In his language he even has a word "reke," which is the equivalent of the English "please" and which he uses constantly. When speaking to a stranger or leaving a person, he draws attention to his action by saying, "I am going." As he grows civilized, however, he loses his good manners.

In spite of this he is not hospitable; the guest gets food, but there is no room for him in the house of a Tarahumare. A visitor never thinks of entering a house without first giving the family ample time to get ready to receive him. When he approaches a friend's home good manners require him to stop sometimes as far as twenty or thirty yards off. If he is on more intimate terms with the family, he may come nearer, and make his presence known by coughing; then he sits down, selecting some little knoll from which he can be readily seen.

In order not to embarrass his friends he does not even look at the house, but remains sitting there gazing into vacancy, his back or side turned toward the homestead. Should the host be absent the visitor may thus sit for a couple of hours; then he will rise and go slowly away again. But under no circumstances will he enter the home, unless formally invited, "because," he says, "only the dogs enter houses uninvited."

Never will the woman of the house commit such a gross breach of etiquette as to go out and inform him of her husband's absence, to save the caller the trouble of waiting, nor will she, if alone at home, make any statements as to his whereabouts.

The Tarahumare never does anything without due deliberation; therefore he may for a quarter of an hour discuss with his wife the possible purpose of the visit before he goes out to see the man. They peep through the cracks in the wall at him, and if they happen to be eating or doing anything they may keep the visitor waiting for half an hour.

Finally the host shakes out the blanket on which he has been sitting, throws it around himself, and, casting a rapid glance to the right and left as he goes through the door, goes to take a seat a few yards distant from the caller. After some meditation on either side the conversation, as in more civilized society, opens with remarks about the weather and the prospects for rain.

When this subject is exhausted and the host's curiosity as to where the man came from, what he is doing and where he is going is satisfied, the former may go back to the house and fetch some meat and pinole for the traveler. The object of the visit not infrequently is an invitation to take part in some game or foot race, and as the men are sure to remain undisturbed they generally reach some understanding.

A friend of the family is, of course, finally invited to enter the house, and the customary salutation is "Assaga" ("Sit down.") In this connection it may be noted that the Tarahumares in conversation look sideways, or even turn their backs toward the person they speak to.

After having eaten, the guest will carefully return every vessel in which the food was given to him, and when he rises he hands back the skin on which he was seated. Should occasion require the host will say: "It is getting late and you cannot return to your home tonight. Where are you going to sleep? There is a good cave over yonder."

With this he may indicate where the visitor may remain overnight. He will also tell him where he may find wood for the fire, and he will bring him food, but not unless the weather is very tempestuous will he invite an outsider to sleep in the house.—From Carl Lumholtz's "Unknown Mexico."

Knew Where She Went.

An attorney was cross examining a witness.

"You say you left Boston on the 16th?" queried the lawyer.

"Yes, sir," replied the witness.

"And returned on the 28th?"

"Yes, sir."

"What were you doing in the interim?"

"I never was in such a place," she replied indignantly, with heightened color.—Boston Herald
